

MALTABEND.

Mrs W H Lambek fell from off a chair on which she was standing Sunday morning and sustained a severe injury. Dr Brown was summoned and placed her in as comfortable a position as possible. She is doing very well and resting easy at this writing.

A protracted meeting is in progress at the M E church; Rev Thompson of Appleton City, is assisting Rev James. We hope much good will result.

Frank Shuster returned home from Arkansas Tuesday; he went down there to seek employment, but failed to find a job that suited.

W W Randolph, who has been at Asper, Mo. for the past three months, returned here Tuesday evening.

A telephone meeting is called for next Monday night. Let every body that is interested come out.

Joe McRoberts was fishing Monday and he stocked the meat market with buffalo and cork.

John Schooley went to visit relatives, and will be may bring her back with him.

Born to the wife of Walker Morton Saturday morning an eight pound girl.

Much corn is being moved to feed lots preparatory for the winter's feeding.

Wm Baker and wife are visiting friends at Manhattan, Kan. this week.

E S Stoer is buying and shipping iron; he has several car loads bought.

Fred Kemper has been in Cooper and Pettis Cos for the last two weeks.

S T Wilson shipped a car load of hogs to Kansas City Monday.

Crum and Crift shipped in a train load of hesters last Saturday.

Our merchants enjoyed a very good Thanksgiving trade.

Jas W Blatz, of Salt Springs, was in town Sunday.

Clara Yancey moved to his new home Tuesday.

Jas Baker and wife were in Marshall Tuesday.

Will Crum was up from St Louis Saturday.

Miss Petreter is visiting in Marshall this week.

HERDON.

J F Adger, C Hulsey and families departed for Oklahoma last week. Adger's little boy happened to a very painful, though not serious, accident just 3 miles west of here. They had stopped for dinner and were hitching up teams preparatory to starting when the little fellow walked too close to a mule and the mule kicked him just over the mouth, cutting an ugly gash and bruising his cheek considerably. Dr Wheeler dressed the wound and said there were no bones broken. Have since heard he was getting along alright. They continued their journey next morning.

We understand there has been some pilfering by some parties in Dr Huff's drug store or office. The Dr has been in K C for sometime and these parties opened a window and took some bottles from the house. The marion should be investigated and if possible find the guilty ones and punish them to the full extent of the law.

T J Morris, who has been in K C for 30 days griping on the cable line, returned home Sunday with the intention of moving his family up there. They will leave in a short time and will make Kansas City their future home.

S L Vining is thinking of making the 1000 miles to look at the country, preparatory to locating it seems that everybody is taking the southern fever.

W C Patterson left last week for Joplin and vicinity. If he does not find anything to suit him he will likely go on to Montana or somewhere in West.

Walter Williams started for Oregon or Washington on Monday. What's the matter girls? Going to let all the boys leave Mo?

A master, who has been confined to his bed for several weeks with typhoid fever, we are glad to learn, is convalescing.

E S Herndon and daughter Miss Hattie and Will H Fenwick were among Monday's callers at the community seat.

J H Samples shipped about 350 head of cattle to Chicago last week; have not learned what figures they brought.

John Stiles has finished repairing his house, painted it nicely and furnished it very nicely also.

J P Riggins is south again this week buying cattle he brought in 40 head from his former trip.

See R N Taylor at the P O and learn the particulars about those hats he has to give away.

Full set of tools for $5 and up at Ois Tibbets, the only cut price dentist.

Commencing November 12th,

Observation Sleepers daily between St. Louis and San Antonio, adding another univaled feature to Southwest travel via the Frisco Line.

M J Sullivan and wife, of Alton, Ill made a visit to his father and mother, Mr Sullivan and wife, this week, at their home on Capitol Hill.

Doll! Doll!

The handsomest line of kid body dolls ever brought to this market. Also dolls of all kinds, both old and young at Wright's. 2 w

Robert Montague, of the Gregory Grocery Co., of Kansas City, made Marshall a visit last week. Bob has many friends in old Saline, who are glad to know that the world is using him well.

Mrs O W Johnston, upon opening the door to a coal stove on Saturday, had her face burned from the blaze, which, while not serious, was very painful.

Miss Elizabeth Wayland, of Saline, the guest of Miss Katherine Hood at Arrow Rock, passed through Marshall on Friday enroute to her home.

Wm Grawe, wife and baby, accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Lessner, left Wednesday for Lexington, where they spent Thanksgiving with relatives.

Miss Dean Robertson is spending the week with relatives in Kansas City; we hope she may return to us much benefitted from the trip.

Dr R E Ward and wife, of Little Rock, Ark., were guests of T A Gibson and wife the rest of the week. They were enroute to California.

Misses Agnes Spencer and May Nor, then spent Tuesday evening with Mr and Mrs T M Rainey on Eastwood Ave.

The New York Store,

FRIDAY WILL BE HALF PRICE
REMNANT DAY

All short lengths of

Dress Goods,

Wash Goods,

Silks, Ribbons,

and Embroideries,

Will be Closed Out to make room for Holiday Shopping.

Bargain Hunters will have a feast at the

THE NEW YORK STORE.